8) Sri P. G. Ramaiya has been shown various concessions during the tenure of his office as Asstt Secretary to Govt as follows:-

a) In G.O dated 27/10/44 his pay was raised from Rs 400/- to 450/- in the grade of Rs 250 - 40/2 - 450.

b) This Officer who attained the age of superannuation in November 1945 was granted extensions of Service on three occasions till the end of August 1946 (Vide notifications of 6/9/45, 22/2/46 and 29/6/46)

c) He was permitted to utilise the leave earned by him after superannuation and granted 6 months Combined leave preparatory to retirement from service. (Vide notification of 31/8/46)*

d) Further he was recalled from leave and appointed as Secretary to the Pay Revision Committee in November 1946. This appointment lasted till 15 July 1947. (The relevant collection is not readily available.)

9) After the termination of this office he was permitted to utilise the unutilised portion of 3 months' leave out of the 6 months combined leave previously granted to him and also the privilege leave of 20 days earned by him in respect of the service rendered by him as Secretary to the Pay Revision Committee. (Vide notification of 30/7/1947).

10) This officer now represents that the duty allowance drawn by him during the last 3 years of his service may be allowed to be taken into account for calculating his pension on the analogy of the G.O of 17/1/1949 permitting the duty allowance drawn by Sri N.V. Sundaram, Rtd Asstt Secretary to Govt, to count for his pension.

11) It is submitted, in this connection, that Sri N.V. Sundaram retired exactly on the date from which the G.O sanctioning the revision of the scales of pay of the Subordinate Gazetted Officers was given effect to and was, thereby, denied the benefit of the revised grade. In view of this exceptional circumstance Sri N.V. Sundaram was ~~promoted~~ shown the concession of 1

withing his duty allowance to count for pension. Similar grounds do not appear to exist in the case of Sri C. G. Ramanja ~~as also~~. He has, besides, been shown all conceivable concessions during and after the tenure of his office as Asstt Secretary to Govt. His request for giving him the benefit of G.O of 17/1/1949 would appear to be not only inappropriate ~~as~~ but also extravagant.

12) In para 17 of the note in the linked file relating to the representation of Sri Hanyanniah, Rtd Asstt Secy, making a similar request the Financial Secretary has noted as follows: — "This case is not in all fours with that of Sri N.V Sundaram who could not have the benefit of the revised grade as he happened to retire on the date from which the revised grade was given effect to." The Fl Secretary's opinion was upheld and the request of Sri Hanyanniah ~~was~~ negatived.

13) In the circumstances it is for orders whether the concession shown to Sri N.V. Sundaram — that of permitting the D.A drawn by him to count for pension — may be extended to Sri C. G. Ramanja also. The Financial Dept may have to be consulted ~~in the matter~~ in the matter if necessary.

14) Sri C. G. Ramaiya has been shown several concessions as indicated in para 8 and 9 of the notes. ~~His concession is not~~ on his present request is that he may be permitted to count the duty allowance drawn by him for pension. This is not admissible under the rules. Sri N. V. Sundaram was, however, allowed the concession of counting duty allowances for calculating the pension payable to him as a special case and in consideration of the fact that he could not have the benefit of the revised grade as he happened to retire on the date from which the revised grade was given effect to. (Vide Fin Secy's note dated 25-9-49 in the linked file)

15) Recently a similar representation from Sri S. Hiriannaiya was not complied with.

16) In view of the above the request of Sri C. G. Ramaiya may have to be turned down.

RE: COUNTING DUTY ALLOWANCE FOR PENSION.

Some years back, the Duty Allowance drawn by an officer during the last three years of his active service was allowed to be taken into account for calculating the pension payable to him. The rules were amended subsequently withdrawing the above concession, [redacted].

The officers who have retired like me in recent years have been hit hard by the cumulative effect of several -- circumstances:-

(i) Owing to the very high prices prevalent during the past decade, they could not lay by anything for their old age.

(ii) They could not enjoy the benefit of the upward revision of scales of pay which were sanctioned only very recently.

(iii) In view of the current high prices, the value of the amount of pension they get is only one-third of what it would have been worth some years back.

(iv) They are allowed no compensation by way of high price allowance, etc.

It is submitted that, in the circumstances, generous and sympathetic consideration is specially deserved in respect of their pension claims.

I am glad to understand that Government have been good enough in a recent instance to permit the duty allowance drawn by a Secretariat Officer (Sri N. V. Sundaram, Assistant Secretary to Government) to count for pension (vide G.O. No. 5565/C.B.65-48-2 dated 17-1-1949). I beg to state that I am an officer whose case is similar to that of Sri Sundaram and, I venture to submit, at least equally deserving, as seen from the following particulars:-

(a) I have put in about the longest service that any Secretariat Officer has put in - about 39 years.

CB

(b) I occupied throughout the most responsible offices that are open to a non-gazetted and subordinate gazetted officer in the Secretariat, having spent the major portion of my service in the Confidential Branch of the Secretariat, Dewan's Office and Finance Department.

(c) I have had an exceptionally good record of my work both as a non-gazetted and a gazetted officer. The accompanying extracts show how my work as a non-gazetted officer was appreciated by the successive Chief Secretaries, and the Confidential Reports in the Secretariat indicate the high appreciation of my work as a gazetted officer.

(d) I have drawn Duty Allowance for about the longest period both in the gazetted and non-gazetted cadres. I held the same office which Sri Sundaram held, viz., Secretary to the Capital Issues Committee, the duty allowance of which has now been allowed to count in the case of Sri Sundaram.

(e) I have also rendered special service as Secretary to the Salaries Revision Committee and as Assistant to the Economy Officer.

I venture to state that my case is of an exceptional nature, both in respect of the length of service and its universal good record, and I request that in my case also the duty allowance drawn by me in the last three years of my service may be allowed to be taken into account for calculation of my pension.
